The idea was born when we (Renata & Aivaras) set together and find out what we want to do in our life. For a living, not just existence. You see, money wasn't the motor for a proper living & even we worked in creative agencies, we didn't liked their approach. We were tired of working for what we don't fully believe. We wanted use our experiences and skills & combine with our own passions, not just fulfilling someone else dreams.

Speaking of passions, we are driven by graphic design, aesthetics, minimalism, abstract, urbanism, décor, interior design & combination of these subjects and styles. Either doing and seeing is a huge pleasure for us! And as we admire so many objects and creators, we knew that creating just a design studio wouldn't be enough to fulfill our dreams. We wanted to surround ourselves by those we adore, get to know them, be inspired and share their story so others could be too.

In final conversation we decided to use our 6+ years experience in business management and 10+ years experience in design field and apply into a combination of design studio, gallery, shop and events. To simplify our multidisciplinary activity, we chose a phrase 'creative house' instead of 'concept store' definition. But it's an explanation, not a name.
